APRIL 2012

A NIGHT DEDICATED TO MEMBERS AND GIN & TONIC

To kick start your bank holiday weekend we will be holding a night of GINS & TONICS. We will be creating wonderful G & T's for you to compare and contrast using our new balloon serve and combining imaginative and complimentary garnishes along with pairing your gin with Schweppes, Fevertree, Fentimans or the amazingly smooth 1724 tonic. You will also be treated to some little snacks throughout the night which will be chosen to enhance your G & T. The balloon serve glass has caused quite a stir recently so come along and see what all the fuss is about. This will be a members only event, so feel free to mingle with fellow gin appreciators! Friday May 4th
Reserve a table by e mailing us at thelondonginclub@gmail.com

NEW GIN

Masters of Malt, the creators of Bathtub gin, a most popular choice for our customers and members, have just created an Old Tom and a Sloe Gin. The Old Tom is sweet on the nose and holds a hearty juniper and orange flavour on the taste buds while the Sloe hits the olfactory senses with almond whilst the taste buds are treated to a rich blackcurrant and sweet vanilla flavour. Both are now available at The Star at Night. Delicious.

GIN OF THE MONTH

Our gin of the month for April is TANQUERAY, including Rangpur and Tanqueray 10. You can try this excellent trio of gins in a cocktail for £7.50 or in a G & T at just £6.50 for the month. Good news for Tanqueray lovers and Tanqueray virgins alike!

JOIN US FOR A NIGHT WITH MARTIN MILLERS GIN

Join us at 5.30 on Saturday April 28th for a evening with Martin Millers Gin. During the 90 minutes they will cover the history of gin, The Martin Miller's Story, an introduction to classic gin cocktails and interactive Cocktail training. HISTORICAL SNIPPET

Gin was originally invented in the 17th century as a medicine to treat stomach complaints and gout. Juniper was added to make it more palatable. Stomach complaint anyone?
